

Surname:
Name:
Group:

date in English:

/20

ENGLISH ORAL COMPREHENSION TEST
BBC 6 minute English
IS THERE MORE OF THE WORLD TO EXPLORE?

I- General comprehension

/7

name of the speakers
definition of exploration
definition of an explorer
the 3 possible answers to the question of the doc: What Ed Stafford became the 1 st person to do?	- - -
A synonymous expression for "unexplored places"

II- Detailed comprehension

/13

- a- Who is mentioned as a famous explorer? For what kind of exploration? /2
.....
.....
.....
- b- When did Ed Stafford explore something new? /1
.....
.....
- c- List the 3 reasons given for exploring /3
.....
.....
.....
- d- What makes Christina Lamb think there is still more to be discovered? /1
.....
.....
- e- What are people who have never had contact with the outside world called? /0.5
.....
- f- What does Colin Thubron, a travel writer, claim? /2
.....
.....
.....
- g- Fill in the 7 gaps: /3.5

1st character: Yes, there's always something new to in the world and
..... it – people are already into space, the – where next?

2nd character: Yes, absolutely. But I think I still need to explore my own city first – there's a lot more to discover in London before I to Mars!

1st character: Maybe you just haven't got any wanderlust – that's theto travel. (...)

Sophie DAMIANO, sophie.damiano@unice.fr